W&S Welcomes Three New Associates for Fall 2008

Shalanda M. J. Miller

Shalanda received her Juris Doctor from Emory University School of Law where she was on Emory Moot Court Society's National Competition Team and was selected as a member of the Order of Emory Advocates. Shalanda was a Morehead Scholar at University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where she received her Bachelor of Science in Psychology with a minor in Mathematical Science. She is also a member of the Georgia Association of Black Women Lawyers.

Her practice at W&S will focus on business and commercial litigation.

A native of Los Angeles, CA, Miller is married to Dave Miller, Jr.

Jonathan R. Benator

Jonathan received his Juris Doctor from Emory University School of Law in 2008 where he was placed on Dean's List and served as Vice President for the Emory Graduate Senate. He also earned a Bachelor of Science in Psychology, cum laude, from the University of Florida in 2005 where he was part of the UF Honors Program and was inducted into the prestigious Florida Blue Key.

Jonathan will practice with the commercial and residential real estate group at W&S, with a focus on community association law.

In his free time he enjoys watching college football and playing with his dog.

Brian M. Christy

Brian received his law degree from the University of Georgia School of Law, where he graduated cum laude. For his undergraduate education, he attended Syracuse University, where he graduated with a B.A. in both Political Science and Magazine Journalism.

His practice at W&S will primarily focus on corporate law, corporate transactions, real estate development, resort management and development, and marketing regulation and compliance.

A native of New England, Brian is engaged to Jennifer Lee, and is an avid fan of baseball and football.
